

PAINTIN' PLACE

Studio and Gift Shop

Open House
January 12th, 2008
10:00 am - 5:00 pm

I hope that you all had a very Merry Christmas. Now that the New Year is upon us and you'll be making resolutions, please leave room for Paintin' Place on your list. Come see our new projects at the first Open House of 2008!

We have a great variety of projects to share with you, so there is bound to be something that will appeal to everyone. We have a number of classes in different mediums, a wide range of styles using many techniques, and on workable and unique surfaces.

To tease you a little.....our project classes offer everything from practical to decorative, and whimsical to realistic. We have it all! We also continue with our Open classes as well as our Beginner classes to welcome newcomers to the world of Decorative Painting.

From our Fine Arts section we will be offering more Colored Pencil classes, from beginner to advanced. We will be having monochromatic and sepia toned projects, as well as continuing with more color theory in this medium.

As always, with a class registration you'll receive a free giveaway - one that you don't have to paint, but that is useful. We'll have the latest books, products and surfaces, as well as sales, sales, sales!

I hope you all find the time to get out of the snow and come relax at Open House. I look forward to seeing you then!
